1967

Florida Southern College / Lakeland, Florida VOLUME 35

College is a blustering storm, a spinning blast, a howling tempest. It is all this and much more. It is growing up through the whirling process of self-discovery, which may be as violent as a HURRICANE . . . or as tranquil as its eye. It is a combination of our turbulent youth and the maturity which awaits at the end of the storm.

Cover Design was adapted from a photograph of a hurricane made from TYROS satellite.

*Each college year comes to life as if in the stilled, hushed center of a hurricane,
with its WHIRL of activity as inescapable as tomorrow.*

TRANSFER.

A campus asleep in a serene stillness with no rustling signs announcing the Wild Fury of action that is to come

. . . Animated, spirited, energetic life with myriad goals and ambitions

Only the campus structures, gleaming white in the sun, maintain an air of tranquility in this Rush of life.

*The convergence of thoughts and knowledge occur anew . . .
ideas are communicated, concepts are grasped . . . the search for the ever-probing “Why” begins again.*

The Turbulence is part of the endless pursuit of individual interests . . . of happiness . . . of that which satisfies . . . that which enables one to understand himself.

And finally, new friends, new faces, new thoughts all come together in the SPINNING wonder of a new college year.

Caught in the FRANTIC pace, one moves through orientation, signs up for classes and inherits his portion of the thousands of problems that pursue the plotted course.

The TUMULT of associating names, and numbers, and buildings and rooms and classes, and hours . . .

The BLAST of drills, the noise of building as the new library climbs to fit its planned design and join the modern complex of our campus.

*As we move through this TEMPEST, there are many directions to follow, bringing with them problems of selection . . . whether through vistas of knowledge, paths to unknown tomorrows, steps to greater things
. . . or the easy way.*

Within the WHIRL there are signs pointing the way to the goals we pursue erratically... directing us through the maze...

By magnifying, intensifying, analyzing subjects, textures and living organisms, we project ourselves into research and forget for a time the CLAMOR around us.

Through the sciences, we explore . . . using what we know and reaching for what we can know.

The arts create a desire to express ourselves ... to find beauty in the CHAOS of the storm surrounding us.

New activities and responsibilities surround the student like a RAGING WIND . . . that will cause him to make decisions never before considered.

Creativity is a personal odyssey...a quest to express oneself through various media...to integrate parts into a whole...the STIRRING of the individual.

College centers upon change and interchange involving professors and students...upon the meaning and worth of what is imparted.

Friendships help in living through the storm . . . sharing together has its comfort in understanding.

For the student, college life is sometimes enigmatic...a constant CYCLE of moods which change as rapidly as the winds in a hurricane.

*But the spirit has its moments, even in this BUSTLE...a quiet dance
...a happy diversion...being a part...*

*That feeling of exuberance . . .
the contagious spirit which fills a crowd . . .*

Doing things one enjoys . . . chasing happiness . . . the feeling of success . . .

*The strong response to a challenge . . .
the urge to win . . . the exultation of competition*

*The ABATING of the storm . . . the appreciated solitude
. . . a quiet thought
. . . a moment of oblivion . . .*

But even in the vortex of rushing college life, enthusiasm exudes, finding its way into all situations and capable of making any time a light moment.

When periods of uncertainty settle upon us, it is sometimes necessary to wait for the answers to come . . . and to WEATHER the conditions while they last.

The skies clear and the horizon is now seen clearly, with the road to the future more clearly marked.

Dear Beverly:

The reason I've taken so long in returning these pictures is because every day I would look at them, put them away and say, "Maybe tomorrow I'll be able to make a decision." They're all so lovely and so many tomorrows have passed that I realized time is running out. After much deliberation, here are my choices.

I've chosen Contestant #3 as MISS INTERLACHEN and Contestants #2 and #5 as my second and third choices, respectively.

If the rest of the school is that beautiful, don't call me next year. I couldn't go through that again!

Thank you so much for asking me. It really was great fun. Reluctantly, I'm returning the pictures and please extend my best wishes to all the girls.

Warmly,

John Davidson

Homecoming

Come Alive '67 was the first Florida Southern Homecoming in which both the students and the alumni participated. The activities started with a bonfire and a pep rally. The Homecoming Concert had Anita Bryant and the Highwaymen playing to the enthusiastic crowd that packed the field house. Campus open house Saturday found many of the alumni returning to their old "homes" to comment on how things had changed.

Saturday afternoon activities centered around the Sump. The Tampa Sky Divers Club literally "dropped" in for a visit and a Crew exhibition and a student-faculty tug of war added to the fun. The climax of the afternoon was the choosing of the five finalist for Homecoming Queen. A panel of five alumni chose the finalists from thirteen coeds. The five chosen were Betty Lou Albert, Wanda Crowell, Pam Jones, Johnna Reid, and Francesca Martinez.

The Homecoming basketball game showed the students and Alums a close game between Southern and FSU. However, it was a bit too close, as Southern lost. The crowning of Homecoming Queen came off at halftime of the game. Francesca Martinez was chosen Queen by the panelists.

The Homecoming dance in Ordway Arts brought the Homecoming festivities to an end. President Thrift said that he felt this to be the most significant Homecoming Southern ever had and that the program was excellent.

Best-Dressed Coeds

Each year WSGA sponsors a competition for the best-dressed FSC coed. This year it was decided to pick a freshman and an upperclassman. Each residence hall and sorority selected a candidate, and the WSGA council voted on the two best-dressed coeds. This year the best-dressed upperclassman is Virdia Van Huss, and the freshman is Francisca Martinez.

Martinez, Van Huss

Christmas Queen

Miss Lee Slayden, Christmas Queen 1966

The junior class sponsored a Christmas Queen contest for the first time. Representatives were elected from each women's residence hall on campus. At the annual Christmas dance each candidate and her escort were introduced. All those attending the dance voted, and the queen was named at intermission.

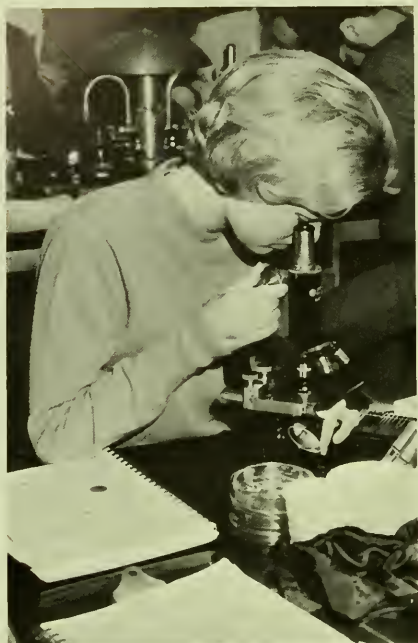

Junior class president Dan Barber presents Lee with her crown as junior class secretary Diane Burton gives her the roses.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Government Association

OFFICERS

TIM SKIDMORE	President
ROGER NICHOLS	Vice President
IRENE TAYLOR	Secretary
ZEB OSBORN	Treasurer

The Student Government Association is the parent organization of such branches as the Supreme Court, the Senate, and Men's and Women's Student Government Associations. It serves as coordinator and guide for these branches. Florida Southern's SGA is a member of the Southern Universities SGA (SUSGA).

Osborn, Taylor, Skidmore, and Nichols.

Supreme Court

The Supreme Court is the focal point of the Student Government Association Judicial Branch. It acts as an appellate court in cases arising from decisions of any other body. The Supreme Court also has original jurisdiction in all legislative matters. It is composed of five justices from the student body and one from the faculty or administration.

Seated: Justices Bruce Cash, Toni Eichhorn. Standing: Irene Taylor, Melody Wolfe.

Senate

The Senate, a branch of Student Government Association, co-ordinates activities of the student body. Working with the president and other officers are male and female senators, each serving one year, from each of the four classes; and two senators-at-large, who are from the sophomore and junior classes, serving two years. The Senate meets twice monthly and sponsors the Freshman Orientation Program, the campus TB drive, and the Christmas Dance. All campus elections are conducted by the Senate; campus organizations must be chartered by the Senate.

Tim Skidmore and Toni Eichhorn ponder over a tense moment in the Senate.

Women's Student Government Association

Judicial Board: Cleveland, Pike, Markert, Romberger, Shultz.

The Women's Student Government Association is a government subsidiary of S.G.A. It is composed of representatives from sororities and independent resident women. W.S.G.A. serves as a court of infractions of college and house rules, and strives to uphold the standards of co-eds at Florida Southern College.

The officers this year are Viridia Van Huss, president; Martha Sargeant, vice-president; Cindy Goode, secretary-treasurer.

Junior Advisers

The Junior Advisers are a select group of junior women who are screened and invited to be a Junior Adviser by a student-faculty committee. Chosen on the basis of personality, scholastic achievement, activities, and interest, it is the highest honor a junior woman can receive. Those women accepting the positions are carefully trained. They then live in the freshman resident halls, where they are sought by the girls for advice and guidance or a friendly conversation. Kay Melton in Joseph-Reynolds and Barbara Kelsey in Allan Spivey served as presidents this year.

Junior adviser Bev Sisk receives a trophy from her appreciative section of freshmen girls.

Social Standards Committee

The Social Standards Committee is a branch of the Women's Student Government Association. The Committee is composed of the social chairmen of the women's residence halls. Their purpose is to raise the social standards of the FSC co-eds. The committee members publish "The Southern Charm", a newsletter to the coeds. Highlighting the fall semester was their annual fall fashion show. In April, a display of bridal china, silver, crystal, and attire was shown at their annual Bride's Party. Joyce Cannistraci served as chairman of Social Standards.

Jan Warriner and Dawn Durrance are hard at work on the "Southern Charm."

Men's Student Government Association

First Row: Bailey, Edge, Long, Dessert, Watson. Second Row: Baldwin, Sweeney, Evans, Brewer, Barber. Third Row: Putnam, Kintner, Manley, Howe, Cupick.

Men's Student Government Association was formed on campus in 1959 under the combined efforts of the Director of Men's office and the Student Government Association. The organization is composed of one representative from each fraternity and independent male housing unit. The purpose of the MSGA is to establish and enforce disciplinary regulations for male students. The highlight of the year was the annual MSGA banquet.

Advisers Council for Resident Men

Each year outstanding men are selected as advisers for the men's residence halls. The junior and senior men chosen have a 2.2 average or better and exemplify qualities of leadership. They help to give the residence halls a friendly and orderly atmosphere. By working closely with the office of the Dean of Students and with their adviser, Director of Men, Frank P. Szabo, the residence advisers provide a connection between the students and the administration.

The officers this year are John Antoon, president; Bruce Aiken, vice-president; Jim Pope, secretary-treasurer.

Choir members harmonize during practice.

The importance of the choral department is found in the individual, who in developing musical potential, strengthens the entire chorus. The Concert Choir of Florida Southern College has traveled all over the state giving concerts. The members of the choir gave up a week of their Christmas vacation in order that they might give concerts in various parts of the state. By performing together as a whole, the members of the concert choir have produced a choir that has won acclaim by many.

Diligent work has produced many beautiful concerts.

Vagabonds

Serving as a producing organization for students who have a special interest in the theatre, the Vagabonds is also a practical laboratory for students majoring in dramatic arts at Florida Southern College. It is a primary objective of the Vagabonds to enable its audiences to see the finest dramatic literature on the stage in productions as professional as possible in a Summer and Winter Repertory Season. Major productions are directed by the faculty and the cast is chosen from the general student body in open try-outs. Love Rides the Rails, The Late Christopher Bean, and George Washington Slept Here were presented to full houses during the summer months. The Vagabonds presented the first musical at FSC, The Boyfriend, in the unique Fletcher Theatre-in-the-Round. February's The Intellectual Ladies and The House of Bernarda Alba closed the 1966 theatrical Productions.

Greek Week

The Highlight of greek activity each year is Greek Week. As always this year provided a great deal of fun and excitement. Gay Herndon and Donnie Davis reigned over the activities of the week as Greek Goddess and God. First place went to Kappa Sigma and Alpha Gamma Delta for their display while Theta Chi and Alpha Delta Pi took the top honors in an afternoon of Greek Games. For the third year Pi Kappa Alpha won first place in the fraternity competition for the Greek Sing trophy, and retired the award. Alpha Omicron Pi won the trophy for the women for the fourth consecutive year and Alpha Chi Omega took home the trophy for the Best of the Rest in the Greek Sing. It was an extremely successful week which gave each of the sororities and fraternities a chance to work together and have a great time for all.

Eric Eisnagle, SAE, presents Bobbie Eisen, AOPi with the trophy for the best sorority in Greek Sing.

Judy Munc, ADPi, presents Wiley Clayton, PiKA, with the trophy for the best fraternity in Greek Sing.

Sue Clay, ADPi, presents Melody Wolfe, Alpha Chi, with the trophy for the Best of the Rest in Greek Sing.

The Greek games start out with the traditional chariot race.

The Brothers Four

This year The Brothers Four were the guest artists at the Greek Week concert. A fraternity joke at the University of Washington in the 1950's brought four Fiji's together and labeled them as headed for success. To put it mildly, Bob Flick, Mike Kirkland, John Paine, and Dick Foley have piled one success on top of another with amazing regularity. They have managed to remain popular without compromising their style.

Olympics

The Kappa Sigma fraternity provided the sorority women with a great deal of fun and excitement this year with their Olympics. The day was filled with events such as the snake relay, kissing contest, grease slide and musical entertainment. All the sorority women participated and the day was one of messy looking girls, frantic attempts to win and above all a great deal of fun. Zeta Tau Alpha took home the top honors and the trophy for the Kappa Sig Olympics.

Derby

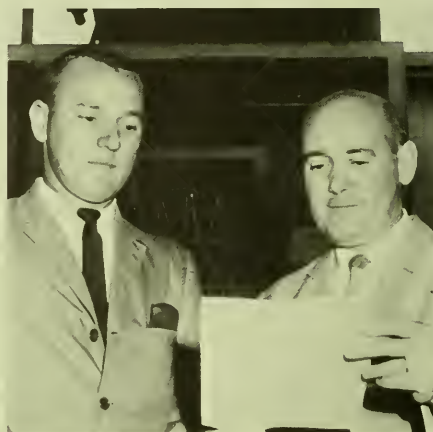

The annual Derby Week sponsored by Sigma Chi was a very eventful week which all enjoyed. Each sorority devoted every spare minute toward pleasing the Sigma Chis and providing a great week for the brothers. It was a huge success and the sorority women enjoyed it as much as the Sigs. Kappa Delta won the over-all derby award for the third year and Alpha Omicron Pi was tops in the Sigma Chi Spirit competition.

Varsity Basketball

This year the Florida Southern Basketball Mocs maintained their reputation as one of the South's finest teams. Led by their co-captains, Jim Hayes and Bobby Bowman, and playing such difficult teams as Florida State, U. of Fla., University of South Florida and Rollins, they came through with a superb record. Lakeland businessmen, sponsoring an organization called Spirit Inc., were largely responsible for the excellent attendance shown at the games and the spirit shown around campus. However, behind the successful plays and everpresent spirit is found the hard work and determination of Coach Tom Greene.

B. Bowman reaches high to make another basket for Florida Southern.

B. Bowman plays a game of "keep away" as two of his opponents attempt to reach for the ball.

Moc's S. Fitzgerald shoots for a basket as a Stetson player moves in to block him.

Southern's J. Hayes stops in mid-air to scrutinize the situation while Moc J. Jurecko and his opponent look on.

J. Hayes jumps to score a point over the outstretched arms of two Stetson players.

Forward B. Bowman grimaces as two Biscayne players move in and try to block him from shooting for a basket.

Left to right: Bob Fryer, Fred Fifner, Al Mertz, Bob Agnew, Joe Lewis, Dave Wiant, Mack Brown, Glenn Phipps.

Varsity Golf

This year's golf captain, Mack Brown, demonstrates a swing to the team.

Under the leadership of Captain Mack Brown, this year's Florida Southern Moc Golfers enjoyed many pleasurable and competitive hours on the green. Coach Jim Jarrett can take pride in his team's fine showing in this small but integral activity in the realm of sports.

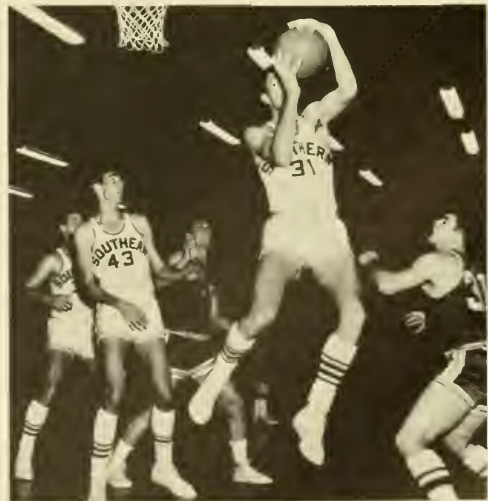

Coaching this year's golf team is Mr. Jim Jarrett.

Junior Varsity Basketball

Coach Dan Doherty and the junior varsity basketball team enjoyed a season of well-played games as a result of hard work and long practice hours. The men on the J.V. team advanced another step toward being future varsity basketball stars.

B. Green leaps high into the air as two of his opponents close in on him.

Cheerleaders

Hard work, long hours and sore muscles are half of the ingredients which make-up a varsity cheerleader. The other half consists of enthusiasm, pep and energy. Combine all these things and you have a perfect description of our Florida Southern varsity cheerleaders. With an active and energetic crowd cheering behind them, an atmosphere of enthusiasm prevails over all basketball games.

Is this the way our varsity cheerleaders renew their energy during half-time?

Enthusiasm and pep abound as the varsity cheerleaders add sparkle to the basketball games.

K. Stanley and B. Trost enjoy warm-up time before a game.

J. Narum and B. Burke, capt., radiate energy as they cheer for the Mocs during a pep rally.

Soccer

Despite the loss of such outstanding lettermen as Terry Darby and John Hayes the 1966 Soccer team suffered few losses. Under the capable leadership of Coach Jim Bush, the numerous freshmen soon became old pros at the game helping their returning teammates climax the season with an impressive 4-4-2.

Moc Bruce Kelsey demonstrates the head shot in mid-air.

Varsity Baseball

A number of familiar faces constitute this year's Baseball team. The names of Simmons —last year voted Most Valuable Player, Sabatini, Aitken, Lewis, Morgan, D'Angio and Priester are just a few of the returning veterans leading the team. Depth for the team is found in the pitcher—Stan Cowherd, catcher—Gary Bryce; and infielder—Dusty Rhodes; all three of which transferred into F.S.C. this year. Sabatini and Simmons attended the 1966 All-Conference. Hockensmith signed with the Los Angeles Angels and like Octavec, Mowbray, Lazzeroni and Bates is missed by the team. The competition for the Mocs is going to be found in such teams as the University of Florida, University of Miami, Yale, Connecticut and Eastern Michigan.

Chuck Anderson has taken over as coach. Ed Jeffries is assistant coach.

Jim Bush is the coach of the tennis team.

Dean Shrimmer and Shorty Orth are co-captains of the tennis team.

Enthusiasm and improvement are two descriptive nouns which epitomize Southern's 1967 tennis team, the Moc Netters. Under the capable guidance of Coach Jim Bush, the tennis team made a fine showing in all tennis matches. The competition was stiff but the team's enthusiasm and fine display of sportsmanship carried them through many tennis matches.

Varsity Track

The newest addition to the varsity sports program at Florida Southern is track. The Cinder-Mocs have not reached full team size as track is still in the pioneer stage in Florida. But each year more students go out for the sport which is ideally suited to the Florida climate.

First Row: Cooper, Haralson, Croysdale, Fusco, Schofield. Second Row: Coach Larry Bland, Harrison, Fogt, Layow, Lee, Daniel.

Varsity Crew

The varsity shell for the Water Mocs have lost the strength of such oarsmen as last year's Jim Steward, Dale Hamm, Kurt Hock and Paul Wilhelmson, but which have been very capably replaced by John Wilcox, Craig Dye, Scot Cruikshank, and Bill Cross. The Mocs will meet with keen competition from such schools as Michigan State, East Carolina, Notre Dame, Amherst and, of course, Marietta, Jacksonville, Tampa, Rollins and Purdue. With the visit and aid of the Princeton crew team, in February, the Mocs voted on changing their old style to the new one used by Princeton. They did reach their goal of rowing and placing in the Dad Vail Regatta last year with the oldstyle—they could reach the ultimate and place first, this year.

Coach Bill Daniels watches his watch in the last few seconds of the race.

Above: Even though the Varsity eight make it look fun and simple, once they get situated in the shell their minds are focused on just one thing—crew.
Right: Coxswain James Goforth.

Skill, balance, and precision are the oarsmen's greatest assets.

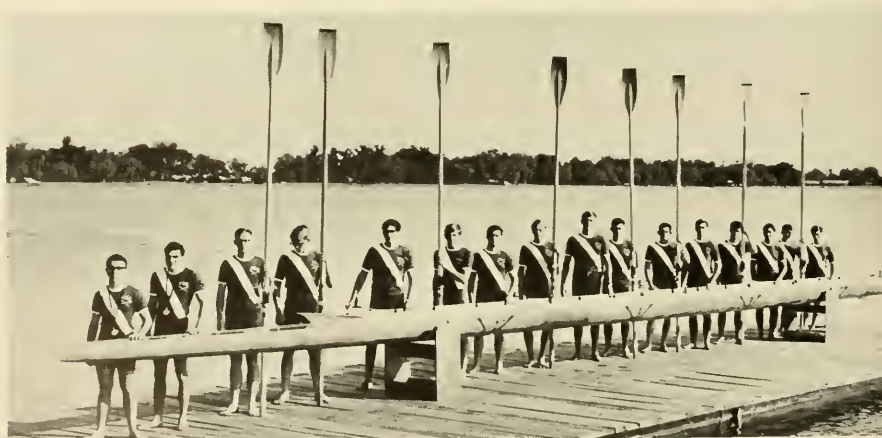

Junior Varsity Crew

A large number came out to participate in the Junior Varsity Crew team this year. The experience gained will make them valuable as oarsmen for the Varsity, as replacements are needed by the graduating seniors. The Baby Mocs face as difficult and rough schedule as does the varsity.

A hidden glimpse of the Junior Varsity working out.

INTRAMURALS

Intramural Sports

"How long do you think we can hold them off?"

Competition and fast paced energy are the keynotes of the Florida Southern intramural sport activities. Major sports such as football, volleyball, basketball and softball and minor sports such as archery and canoeing are played in a very competitive nature by the various fraternities, sororities, and independent teams. Indeed, intramurals is an extra advantage which has been added to the extra-curricular campus life of Florida Southern students.

In case of stampede, stand still!

"Maybe it's just as well we don't have a football team."

Intramural Champions

At the end of the Intramural Basketball season, Sigma Phi Epsilon was in first place in overall point standings. They accomplished this by winning football, tennis, and badminton. Theta Chi having won basketball is in second place. Rounding out third place at this time is Pike, having taken first place in Volleyball. The outcome of spring sports will determine the overall champions, the winners of the coveted all-sports trophy.

The Senior Class

OFFICERS

BOB McOSKER President
ELLEN BIERMANN Vice-President
JOYCE PENDLETON Secretary-Treasurer

Bierman, McOsker, Pendleton.

Their final year has now ended, and the senior class has worked hard to make it a memorable one. Each year the senior class gives the graduation banquets and exercises. Along with these activities, the class acts as a link between the students and SGA. This year they left to the school two directory maps to aide visitors.

OFFICERS

ANDREW STEELE President
ANDREA McGEE Vice-president
GINGER OSBORN Secretary-Treasurer

McGee, Steele, Osborn

The Freshman Class participates in and sponsored many activities on Southern's campus. The main social function was the sponsorship of an old-fashion Sadie Hawkins Dance, where the girls asked the boys and everyone came dressed in true "Dog Patch" style. The Class as a whole did much to increase the spirit on campus.

Like a HURRICANE the experiences of college cannot be assessed until the storm begins to subside . . . because only when the winds have died and the clouds have lifted can we look back and let all that has happened solidify.

In the calm that follows the HURRICANE, each student can look back and remember . . . the quiet beginning . . . the whirlwind of activities . . . culminated in his college life.

You are now entering the warm front of our advertisers. Let's give them a whirlwind of business so they may have fair weather ahead.

THE GEORGE W. JENKINS FIELDHOUSE

. . . another sign of growth and progress

With each passing year Florida Southern College moves ahead with its goal of developing the finest possible campus for educating young men and women. The latest edition to the campus facilities is the George W. Jenkins Fieldhouse which serves as the center of physical training and athletic endeavors. Templin's, Inc., is proud of its long association with Florida Southern College and its role in the development of the campus, including construction of the east campus dormitory area, the cafeteria, Branscomb Auditorium and most recently, the George W. Jenkins Fieldhouse.
